

Ecoembes

Company details

Ecoembes is a non-profit public limited company whose corporate objects include the design and organization of an Integrated Management System (SIG) for the selective collection and recovery of packaging waste for subsequent treatment, recycling and upgrading.

Ecoembes was incorporated in 1996. Since then, more than 12,000 companies have joined the SIG. Its shareholders include 57 companies and groups comprising all of the sectors which participate in the management of packaging, from manufacturers and packagers to distributors, manufacturers of raw materials and recyclers.

In 1998, when Ecoembes started to operate, household packaging recovery and recycling rates were 5% and, 16 years later, more than 70%. This data have enabled our country in 15 points exceed the objectives set by the European Union in the field of recycling of packaging (55%).

In 2017 Ecoembes opened The Circular Lab, an open innovation center focused on the pioneering circular economy in Europe
